ONE SECOND AFTER DEATH

Charles Coats

While man has the ability to measure time in increments of less than a second, most of us talk about seconds. To us, one second is the shortest period of time and when something happens in a second, that is incredibly, almost unbelievably, fast. It is hard to imagine it could happen that fast.

Thinking about this, a thought came to me about what it would be like one second after our death. In that short span of time, what will happen to us? What knowledge would we have? Think about these things:

1. One second after our death, we will know our eternal dwelling place. The truth of the teachings of the Bible about reward and punishment will be realized by us. Lk. 16:22,23.
2. One second after our death, we will know there is a God. A person once said there would be no atheists in Hell. That is correct, because those who deny the existence of God while in this life will certainly know he exists when they lift up their eyes in their punishment. Over 40 times in the book of Ezekiel, when God pronounced his punishment upon the people, he told them then they would know that he is God. For example, see Eze. 23:49.
3. One second after our death, we will know the true value of the things we thought were important. If we treasured the things of God, we will receive a great reward from God. However, if we treasured the things of this world, we will be eternally punished. Suddenly, we will understand that it really did not matter if we had that great job, or won that election, or were popular. Now, we know what Jesus meant when he said what does it profit us if we gain the world and lose our own souls. Matt. 16:26; Jn. 5:28,29; Matt. 6:19-21.
4. One second after our death we will know no greater joy or no greater agony. We will rest in Abraham's bosom (Lk. 16:22; Rev. 14:13) or we will be in torment forever (Lk. 16:23; Rev. 21:8). In the blink of an eye, we will rejoice forever or forever regret the choices we made.

What do you want to see one second after your death?!
